QUESTIONS YOU NEED TO CONSIDER

Mercury provides everything you're looking for in an auto insurance company – customized coverage, low rates, excellent service, financial stability, and 24/7 claims service. But sometimes the choices can be confusing. Here are some questions you should ask before purchasing insurance.

What coverage should I consider?

- Liability: Pays for damage caused to others if you are at fault in a covered accident, including the services of an attorney to defend you if you are sued after an accident.
- Collision: Covers damage to your vehicle incurred as a result of a covered accident, regardless of fault.
- Comprehensive: Protects you in the event your vehicle is damaged due to theft, vandalism, flood or other covered perils.
- Personal Injury Protection (PIP): Pays your medical expenses and reimburses you for lost wages in a covered loss.*
- Uninsured/Underinsured: Pays for bodily injury to you and other passengers/drivers of your insured vehicle for accidents caused by uninsured/underinsured drivers.*

*Coverage may not be required in all states.

Does the company provide small claims assistance?

If you are sued in small claims as a result of a covered loss, Mercury will help you prepare your defense and will send a representative with you to court.

Am I covered when I rent a car?
